HOUSE RESOLUTION

2

WHEREAS, For the sixth consecutive year, Zeigler-Royalton Coaches vs. Cancer has led all schools in the State of Illinois in funds raised in support of the American Cancer Society; and

3

4

5

WHEREAS, During the six years of the group's efforts, they have raised in excess of $96,000; in 2016, they expect to reach $100,000; and

6

7

8

WHEREAS, In addition to leading the State in profits raised, Zeigler-Royalton has achieved a national status, including finishing as high as seventh among all high schools in the United States; and

9

10

11

12

WHEREAS, The money raised for Coaches vs. Cancer is returned to southern Illinois in the form of patient services and grants that help in the early detection and prevention of cancer; and

13

14

15

16

WHEREAS, These feats are remarkable given the school's student population of 160 and a combined population of less than 3,000 in both communities; and

17

18

19

WHEREAS, Not only are students learning about the risk factors for cancer and raising awareness, they are volunteering

20

1 their time and efforts into a great charitable cause; and

2 WHEREAS, The students, coordinators, and all those
3 involved deserve recognition and congratulations for their
4 outstanding work in raising funds and volunteerism; therefore,
